

The People, In Uniform

JUNE 19, 2020

STRUGGLESSESSIONS

By 3/4 dead

The refined gentleman takes the stage at the stadium for his inauguration Gray hair and glasses, brimming with confident resolve “our army is the people, in uniform” he says

The revisionist hens cackle in victory The “Communist Party” on the “peaceful road” the refined gentleman tells the people without uniforms that there will be no arming of them, he says they will be protected by the people in uniform

Hundreds of wolves assemble appointed by the refined gentleman and then the “Communist Party” disapproves of the left gestures the refined gentleman provides He says the people are to form committees to keep the wolves loyal this is too much for the “Communist Party”

This spectacle does not conclude with the inauguration speech both the “Communist Party” and the refined gentleman keep saying the same thing for three years in this time the wolves perfecting their blood lust

On September 11th the revisionists are still cackling so self-affirmed in their “peaceful road” with full confidence in the people, in uniform

The very same stadium is packed again, not with cheering crowds not for an inauguration this time, but with gaunt bodies deprived of food and sunlight covered in piss and open wounds Inflicted by the people, in uniform

The revisionists the world over are still celebrating the inauguration of their toppled leader, still affirming their “peaceful road” now drenched in the blood of the people and the wolves feasted on the lives of artists, intellectuals, labor leaders revolutionaries and revisionists alike

They broke the fingers of a guitarist and insisted he play they have but illustrated the principles of revisionism with the horror inflicted, in the very same stadium three years later

The resolve of the revisionists is exposed as delusion but the resolve of the people is infinite and blinding

The refined gentleman is dead discarded on his “peaceful road” but the heart of Recabarren beats louder still and the communist leader lives forever in the struggles to reconstitute his glorious Party it will wipe away the hens and the wolves alike relying on the people, without uniforms we can hear them saying: RETAKE RECABARREN! DOWN WITH REVISIONISM!
